"I know them." Today we are given the image of Jesus as the Shepherd and of his people as the flock. We hear the words "I know them". Jesus knows each person intimately. He know our deepest desires, our worries and our fears, our insecurities and our pain. But Jesus is as close to us as our own breathing.

CONTRATULATIONS to all of the children who celebrated their Confirmation on Friday. Speaking this week, Bishop Duffy asked people across the diocese “to pray for all the young people being confirmed this year. ‘I ask people to pray especially that the young people will always be models of our Christian faith by the way in which they express their closeness to God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Please pray for their parents and guardians, their grandparents and their brothers and sisters, their sponsors, their wider family circles and also for the communities in which they live. May the Holy Spirit guide them so that they may be models of the love that Jesus shows for each of us every day.”

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION: the children of St Mary’s PS will celebrate their First Holy Communion in the Church of Immaculate Conception, Newtownbutler on 25th May at 11am
