GOLDEN JUBILEE. On Sunday 14 July next, Bishop Liam MacDaid, Bishop Emeritus of Clogher, will mark the 50th anniversary of his ordination to priesthood with a special Mass of Thanksgiving in St Macartan's Cathedral, Monaghan. The Mass will begin at 4pm. Bishop MacDaid was ordained at St Patrick's College, Maynooth on 15 June 1969. Everyone will be very welcome to attend the Mass and all are invited to the nearby Hillgrove Hotel for refreshments after the Mass. A native of Bundoran, Co Donegal, Bishop Liam served as Bishop of Clogher from July 2010 until his retirement on health grounds in October 2016. Since his ordination, Bishop MacDaid has served the people of the diocese as a teacher, a leader in the field of education, as a diocesan official and as bishop. Above all, he has served countless people as a priest and it is this priestly ministry which the people of the diocese and his many friends will celebrate and give thanks for on the 14th July.

I sought myself and myself I could not find; I sought my God and my God I could not find; I sought my brother and I found all three, my God, my brother and myself. This old verse echoes the words of St John, "That if we do not recognise God in people whom we can see, we will find it difficult to recognise the God whom we cannot see." It's all too easy Lord, to pass by on the other side. And yet, within each person on the edge of society, there beats a heart like yours and mine. The rough sleeper, the migrant, the addicted person, the prisoner, all shed their tears when nobody is looking. And we hurry along to the next "important" appointment, or trudge along, worrying about our problems, wondering why you don't solve them or where you are. And all the time, you are hiding in plain sight, well-disguised, poorly dressed, in need of a wash. Lord that we may see. Extract from Sacred Heart Novena 2019

GOOD LITURGICAL MUSIC!

A priest was completing a good old fashioned fire and brimstone sermon on the evils of drink: with great expression he said "If I had all the beer in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river". With even greater emphasis he said "And if I had all the wine in the world, I'd take it and throw it in the river." And then finally, he said: "And if I had all the whiskey in the world, I'd take it and throw it too into the river." He sat down. The choir leader then stood up very cautiously and announced with a sheepish smile "For our next song, let us sing hymn #365: "Shall we gather at the river" Irish
