The Garden Tomb, Jerusalem.

"Still it stands, that little garden near the city wall. Still the olives spread their branches and the sparrow's call. All may stand where Jesus stood, and all may come to pray – where he rose in glory on the Resurrection Day. The place where Christ was seen of Mary in the morning hour. The garden of the miracle of Love's transcendent power". P Strong

Fr. Kevin and Fr. King would like to wish all our parishioners a very happy, joyful and peaceful Easter. Thank you to all those who prepared for and took part in our celebration of Holy Week and Easter - Choir members and musicians; Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Leaders and Members of the Pope John Paul II Awards, Parish Secretary, Sacristans in both Churches, and all those who took part in any way. Thank you also to all our parishioners for your participation in our Masses and Liturgies, for your kindness and encouragement to your priests, for your financial support of our parish and for your generous contributions to charitable causes. A happy and blessed Easter to you all.
