SUNDAY MASSES

10 seats will be reserved for the families marking a Month's Memory or First Anniversary Mass. It will not be possible to reserve seats for subsequent anniversaries.

Sunday Mass is a parish event – a gathering of the believing community on the Day of the Lord's Resurrection. While we commemorate our deceased relatives and friends at Sunday Masses, the Mass belongs to the baptised parish community as a whole. From now on Readers and Eucharistic Ministers will be chosen from the Parish Rotas for Sunday Masses. The only exception will be for Month's Memory and First Anniversary Masses. This applies to both the 6.30pm vigil Mass in Donagh and the 11.30am Sunday Mass in Newtownbutler.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT WILL RESUME THIS WEEK

Donagh: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday evenings from 7.30pm to 9.30pm.
(Tuesday's hours will be extended when a timetable is put together)

Newtownbutler: Thursdays from 10.30am to 9pm. Sunday evenings from 7pm to 9pm.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION WITH MASS ARRANGEMENTS

The whole idea is to reduce the pressure on seats at weekend Masses and keep our Churches open. It would be appreciated if those who are attending weekday Mass would keep doing so, instead of attending the Vigil or Sunday Morning Mass. There is plenty of room at weekday Masses for those who wish to come instead of Sunday. Those who wish to attend more than one weekday Mass are very welcome to do so.

PARISH DRAW: The results of July's Draw will be announced at the end of Sunday Mass today and will be published in the bulletin next week. A huge thank you to promoters and members for your faithful support. You are welcome to update your membership at any time using the special envelopes provided in the Churches.
