May Altar Prayer

I come to Thee my Mother
 To lay before Thy feet
 My fears, my hopes, my longings
 My bitter hours and sweet.
 Oh take them, Mother Mary,
 And place them by God's Throne,
 Your hands will give them value,
 They're worthless on their own.

And as I kneel before you
 Speak to your Son for me
 Though poor and small my offering
 I know it is dear to Thee.
 For you your Son at Cana,
 Changed water into wine.
 The needs of the Bride and Bridegroom,
 Were small compared to mine.
 And so My Mother Mary, I lay before Thy feet, My fears, my hopes, my longings
 My bitter hours and sweet.
 Amen.
